Adverbs can modify adjectives, but an adjective cannot modify an adverb. Thus we would say that "the students showed a really wonderful attitude" and that "the students showed a wonderfully casual attitude" and that "my professor is really tall, but not "He ran real fast.". Like adjectives, adverbs can have comparative and superlative forms to show degree.

Underline The Adjectives Worksheets - Larny Kids

The version with all the adjectives and adverbs removed does not say the same thing as the one with adjectives. But is there some other, less adjective-and-adverb-ridden way of getting the same information to the reader? The usual advice is to replace generic nouns and verbs with more specific, evocative ones, but it's not as simple as that.
