MARTY HAUGEN - ALL ARE WELCOME LYRICS

All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place. Let us build a house where hands will reach, beyond the wood and stone, to heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they've known. Here the outcast and the stranger, bear the image of God's face; let us bring an end to fear and danger.

All Are Welcome, song by Marty Haugen - HelpingOut

Marty Haugen A collection for worship by one of our time's most accomplished liturgical composers. Arranged simply, All Are Welcome is intended to be performed with either grand or limited resources. Abounding in the Haugen tradition, the title hymn is a song of gathering and therefore a natural outgrowth of "Gather Us In."

Marty Haugen - Wikipedia

There is a song that we sing at many parishes by Marty Haugen, it's called "All Are Welcome". The song boasts of the welcoming nature of the Church, and the body of Christ, and bids everyone to gather in this house of love and grace, because after all, we are all welcome at the His table. But, are we really all welcome?

This week's hymn of the week is Marty Haugen's "All Are Welcome". Our world is a place of brokenness and alienation. Jesus calls us to wholeness and reconciliation. As disciples of Jesus, we seek justice and healing among people.

Hymn of the Week - All Are Welcome - Spirit of Joy ...

All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place. Let us build a house where prophets speak, and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek, to dream God's reign anew. Here the cross shall stand as witness, and as symbol of God's grace; here as one we claim the faith of Jesus.
