This is an easy-to-follow manual. It is written for job seekers and those whose jobs are to help job seekers get employed. It is written in two parts. The first part shows what you should do in job search and why you should do it. The second part shows how you should do a job search. Many people find job searches very stressful. The author discusses this and makes the job search an enjoyable learning experience. When you're reading this book, you'll feel as though the author is right there with you, holding your hand through the job search. This manual not only makes looking for employment easy for the job seeker but it will also help those who work in the back-to-work job search industry teach, coach, and assist their job seekers in reaching their employment goal. There are real-life experiences from real job seekers from every walk of life. This book looks at people who are educated, people with limited education, people who have worked for years, and people who have very little to no work history. This manual will address the following: —How to organize your job search to save time. —How to stand out as different from the rest of the job seekers. —Techniques you can use to recruit masses of people to job search for you. (You don't have to know them, and they may never know you.) These are just a few jewels among many you'll get from America's Official Job Search Manual. Take the book, enjoy it, get hired, and move forward with your life. I'll see you on the next level.
