Da un maestro del giallo storico, il racconto affascinante e mozzafiato della misteriosa abbazia di Pomposa. Un saggio illustrato che si legge come un romanzo, in cui Marcello Simoni svela i segreti nascosti negli affreschi che decorano l'abbazia, una vera e propria "Bibbia di pietra" in cui convivono diavoli, mostri ed episodi dalle scritture. Simoni rintraccia le fonti di questo labirinto di simboli, e suggerisce una lettura sorprendente di uno dei capolavori dell'arte medievale. Un viaggio - illuminato dai disegni dell'autore - nella bellezza di un luogo dal fascino immutato, che racchiude mondi letterari e artistici tutti da scoprire, rivelati dalla scrittura appassionante dell'autore italiano di thriller più tradotto al mondo. "Tutto è cominciato quando, ancora bambino, entrai per la prima volta nell'abbazia di Pomposa e posai lo sguardo sulle sue pareti coperte da affreschi vecchi di oltre seicento anni. All'epoca non avevo idea di cosa fosse il Gotico medievale. Ma amavo già inventare e ascoltare storie. E quella a cui mi trovavo di fronte, lo percepii da subito, era una storia grandiosa."
