"Reader-friendly" memos, letters and reports, consist of focused paragraphs which are limited in length. 1. Focusing Paragraph Content. F. Scott Fitzgerald said, "Life is looked at most successfully through a single window." A paragraph is the "window" for a single idea. A complete paragraph names, explains, supports and concludes one idea--one ...

Everyone has heard of a user-friendly computer program, the kind that doesn't require any effort or special knowledge on the part of the user. Your goal as a writer is to create a "reader-friendly" paper, one that communicates your ideas clearly to your reader and that makes the task of following your discussion as effortless as possible.

Writing a Reader Friendly Paper (M. Thickstun)

The Bulletin's accompanying statement, authored by Mecklin and addressed to the "leaders and citizens of the world," is a seven-page, reader-friendly recitation of man-made horrors and suggested mitigations. Humanity is facing "a state of emergency that requires the immediate, focused, and unrelenting attention of the entire world ...
