Those "some" (as in rare) lawyers' souls are the victims of their own success, profiles raised if not praised, and making money off personal nastiness which comes with its own language. Lawyers, every single one of them, from the day they write their first demand letter, to the day, at age 75 when they should retire, become one with a set of secret, seemingly common English words but which have lawyer written all over them. These words are by design intended to have double-meanings and are ...
