Usually customers agree with the rustic look idea when they get the price of a tight scribe. We usually level a fastening block on the stone wall and then place the hollow mantel over the fastening block, level, and then scribe to fit. We use a jig saw with a blade that cuts on the downstroke, as well as a rotozip.

The original Rustic Inn Crabhouse began as a roadhouse saloon in Fort Lauderdale, some 60 years ago. Over the years, our hole-in-the-wall has molted to meet the demands for steamed crabs, seafood, and other popular dishes. Our World Famous Garlic Crabs have drawn people in from all over the world, including a Full Scribe Scribing, also used interchangeably with coping in woodworking, is when you carve out and shape the lateral underside of a log, so it is able to stack snugly on the log under it. Similar in look to the Swedish Cope, some prefer full scribe over the chink style, because of the tight fitting, aesthetic look.
